

CHAPTER 533.

AN ACT to regulate municipal elections in Annapolis City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of new section 160 of article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Elections," as enacted by chapter 538 of the acts of 1890, and the provisions of new section 166 of said article 33, as enacted by chapter 701 of the acts of 1892, shall not apply to municipal elections held in the city of Annapolis, Anne Arundel county. Laws inapplicable.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the corporation of the city of Annapolis shall appoint three persons, in each of the three wards of the city, as judges of its municipal elections, any two of whom shall be competent to hold such elections, and shall appoint the necessary clerks of said election; and the judges and clerks shall qualify before the mayor of the city, or any justice of the peace for the city of Annapolis; and the said judges and clerks shall, in the execution of their respective duties and in the manner of conducting elections, conform in every respect to the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws relating to elections, and shall be subject to the same penalties as other judges and clerks of election in this State; and the said corporation of Annapolis shall pay all expenses incurred in said municipal elections, including the expenses of the special registration for the city of Annapolis preceding each municipal election. Judges of election.

SEC. 2. And the said corporation shall provide the ballots and all other material and machinery necessary for the holding of said municipal elections; and the supervisors of election in Anne Arundel county are hereby relieved from all duties and responsibilities in connection with said municipal election. To provide ballots, etc.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved April 6th, 1894.